

Statement of Faith for Your Will or Trust

As my last message to my family, loved ones, and friends, I wish to set your minds at ease. I “do not want you to be ignorant . . . or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope.” 1 Thessalonians 4:13. When you read my Will, I will be “away from [my] body and at home with the Lord.” 2 Corinthians 5:8. The most valuable part of my estate is this brief witness to you, which will mean more than anything of material value. Having been “born again” according to John 3:3, which states that “you must be born again,” I have by faith accepted and believed in the death, burial, and resurrection of my Lord Jesus Christ. This assures my eternal home in heaven where I await your arrival and our reunion—providing, of course, that you, too, have accepted Him. If not, then please permit me this one last appeal and invitation—Come! “That if you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead, you will be saved.” Romans 10:9. “Not by works, so that no one can boast.” Ephesians 2:9.
